

Symantec is a leading brand on the global market offering SSL certificates and other computer security products. It belongs to Fortune 500. In 2010, the company took over VeriSign dealing in security. By acquiring GeoTrust and Thawte it has become the largest provider of SSL certificates. In 2017, Symantec Website Security and related PKI solutions went to DigiCert Inc.

WHAT DISTINGUISHES SYMANTEC CERTIFICATES

Nearly 97% of banks in the world use certificates issued by Symantec

Serves customers from over 50 countries around the world

Most often used to protect e-commerce websites

Warranty up to USD 1,750,000

COMMON FEATURES OF ALL SYMANTEC CERTIFICATES

Validation languages: English

Root length: 2048-bit

256 bit encryption strength

99.00% browser recognition

Facebook Apps Compatibility

Server licence: 1

Free Trust Logo

Support for IDN domains

TYPES OF CERTIFICATES ON SYMANTEC OFFER

OV

Wildcard OV

EV

Code Signing

A free security seal is a sign that makes sure that shopping and transferring private data on your website is secure.

The widest selection of code signing certificates - including Microsoft Office, Adobe Air, Macromedia
Shockwave

The choice of banks and financial institutions - Symantec Secure Site Pro EV - securing up to 25 domains simultaneously

SYMANTEC CERTIFICATES ARE USED BY:

Facebook

Amazon

HSBC